Monthly Lunch Breaks with ASCE (Webinar Link after RSVP)

Wednesday, May 5, 2021
12:00 pm - 12:40 pm

With most of the world working remotely due to COVID-19, the boundaries between home life and work life can be blurred at times. One of the easiest ways to gain some semblance of work life balance is to take a lunch break, and why not have a little fun in the process!

Please join the ASCE Philadelphia YMF for our THIRD Monthly Lunch Break event in our four-part series! There will be four 5-minute presentations during the event. This is a great opportunity to share with and meet your fellow ASCE YMF Community. We are accepting volunteers to present during the event. Presentations can be on a new hobby you learned during the pandemic, a side-hustle you are working on, or even give a tutorial you think others would enjoy. Any idea is welcome! Each presenter will receive a $15 gift card to Grubhub ahead of the event to purchase themselves a tasty lunch.

Call for Volunteers! Sign up for a slot by emailing Lindsay Chateauvert at Lindsay.Chateauvert@gmail.com.

So, let's all grab our lunches, step away from work, and take a lunch break with our favorite ASCE YMF colleagues!

This event will be hosted through Zoom. Please RSVP using the link below. RSVP is required to participate.
